

H. Michael Cunningham, Ph.D.

2237 Ridge Rd. #101

Rockwall, Tx.

972/771-3969

Fax: 972/771-8258

Email: hmctexas@yahoo.com

Texas State License # 2-3307

EDUCATION

- Ph. D. in Clinical Psychology -1984- University of North Texas
- M. S. in Experimental Psychology -1982- University of North Texas
- B. A. in Psychology -1977- Stephen F. Austin State University

CLINICAL SKILLS

- Utilize eclectic approaches to treat a broad spectrum of psychological and psychophysical maladies (including affective disorders, chronic pain, headaches, sleep disorders, PTSD, hypertension and cancer) in a Private Practice setting.
- Conduct psychotherapy using Individual, Marital, Family and Group formats
- Perform EAP function for numerous third party payers.
- Provide evaluation, psychotherapy and psycho-education on Chemical Dependency units.
- Essential member of a multidisciplinary treatment team on acute psychiatric units providing evaluation, group and individual therapy.
- Extensive experience in crisis intervention using brief, strategic therapy.
- Actively facilitated Vietnam Combat Veteran's rap group.
- Lead process group with parents and teens dealing with runaways, discipline, drugs and alcohol, sex, communication skills and physical/sexual abuse.

FORENSIC

- Deposed as treating psychologist and expert witness in custody, personal injury, competency, malpractice, child abuse, and criminal cases.
- Testified in over 50 jury trials.

SUPERVISION/ TRAINING

- Debrief police, firefighters, therapists, and EMT's after critical incidents.
- Oversee Psychologists and LPC's through postgraduate supervision.
- Directed workshops on codependency, stress management, crisis intervention and job survival skills.
- Trained management personnel to recognize and intervene with employees suspected of alcohol/drug abuse.
- Spearheaded a 25-member management assessment team.

ADMINISTRATION

- Impaneled with over 45 preferred provider organizations
- Peer Review expert for numerous health maintenance organizations.
- Budgeted and administered a multi-million dollar employment program.
- Designed, authored grants to fund a variety of community service programs.
- Designed methodology and authored reports on over 30 research projects.

EMPLOYMENT

- Since 3/87 Psychologist in private practice.
Associate: Robert F. Mehl, Ph. D.
(972) 771-3969
- 8/86 to 3/87 Psychologist at Southeastern Methodist Hospital on the drug/alcohol unit.
Supervisor: Jane Hughes, R. N.
(214) 372-7811
- 9/84 to 8/86 Psychologist at the Behavioral Medicine Clinic.
Associate: Dale Gilsdorf, Ph. D.
(206) 532-0060
- 9/83 to 8/84 Pre-doctoral Intern at American Lake VAMC.
Supervisor: Marvin Brown, Ph. D.
(206) 582-8440
- 7/83 to 8/84 Family Therapist at Catholic Community Services.
Supervisor: Roger Corn, Ph. D.
(206) 752-2455
- 9/81 to 5/83 Teaching Fellow at University of North Texas.
Supervisor: Jack Haynes, Ph. D.
(817) 565-2671
- 1/82 to 5/83 Computer and Research Consultant.
Self-Employed
- 9/79 to 5/80 Fund raiser / Program Developer for Rapid Advancement
Program, an alternative elementary school.
Supervisor: Grady Willingham, Ed. D.
(409) 564-1222
- 1/78 to 5/79 Vocational Counselor / Administrator for the Deep East
Texas Council of Governments.
Supervisor: Betty Brown
(409) 634-2247